Winster Cof E Primary School Sport Relief

On the 19th March 2010 the juniors and infants ran a mile for Sport Relief. If we wanted we could have got some sponsors, some of us did and we raised £226! WELL DONE! The mile was just over 6 laps around the football field! No one gave up. We all tried to beat our first time and we all achieved it. We all had a great time so well done everyone.

Science and Engineering Day

On the 15th March 2010 the juniors and infants had a Science and Engineering day. Our challenge was to build a shelter. We couldn't just jump in, we had to plan it and get all the things we needed. Then we could build it. There were 5 groups. All the year sixes were team leaders. Most of us built African shelters because our topic this term is Africa. All of us tried our very best. At the end they all looked astonishing and we couldn't wait to go inside the shelters. We all enjoyed the day, it was amazing.

By George (Year 6 pupil)

A big thank you to everyone who raised money for the outdoor classroom'.

From Ore to Orchids (as part of Winster History Group's Events)

An evening of film by Niki & Mat Adlam-Stiles
Monday 26th April at 7:30pm in the Burton Institute

“From Ore to Orchids” highlights the unexpected and almost symbiotic relationships that have developed over time, through history, and into the future that we all have the opportunity to influence. Complemented by “Treasures of the Earth” an earlier short film that takes a look at both the archaeological interest and natural beauty to be found underneath England’s hillsides.

EASTER EGG HUNT AND DISCO

THURSDAY 1ST APRIL

A daring attempt to kidnap the Easter Bunny was foiled today, by a group of brave and enthusiastic children who helped to solve the clues and following a sliver trail around the village to find his kidnapper humpty dumpty broken on the floor and the poor bunny locked in the store cupboard, once the Easter Bunny was set free the children settled down for a celebration tea and disco. hope you all enjoyed yourselves.

THANK YOU TO SHAUN FOR A FAB DISCO and to the parents who helped on the day.

How does the Village Mag work

Financially we received a generous grant 4 years ago to get us going. We rely on our advertisers to cover our photocopying costs. Holiday cottage owners pay £5.00 a year for the magazine. We don't charge residents or second home owners.

Copy comes to Anthea or Caz at the Post Office (now in the Village Shop). This can be written, typed sent by e-mail to mag@winster.org. Joyce provides the Puzzle Page.

Anthea types the magazine and passes it to John and Esther who do the photocopying in the Morgue on West Bank. She also sends an electronic copy to John for uploading on the village web site.

John and Sue contact advertisers and are always looking for more adverts please.

Brian does the finances and Lesley does our secretarial work.

What a team!

Attention to B&B and Rental Holiday Cottage owners

I have recently updated the Cottages page of the website, and have removed a few cottages where I could no longer find a current website. I have also categorised cottages by size, and whether they take pets - please check your entry and let me know if I have got anything wrong. Could B&B owners check that the prices and other details are correct for 2010.

To help fund the Winster Website and Village Magazine, we are about to start asking owners to pay a modest fee if they want to continue to have a link from the Winster Website to their cottage/B&B details. Those choosing not to pay will still get listed by name - but they won't get a direct link to their site.

I have contact details for B&B owners, and many (but not all) cottage owners. If you own a rental cottage and haven't heard from me by the time you read this, please drop me an email to make sure I know where to reach you.

The Late Annie Slaney's Party Piece—Granny's Old Armchair

Now my grandmother she, at the age of eighty three
One day took sick and died.
And after she was dead, the Will of course was read
By a lawyer as we all sat side by side.
To my brother it was found, she had left a hundred pounds
The same unto my sister I declare
But when it came to me the lawyer said "I see"
She has left you her old armchair.

Chorus

How they titter, how they chaffed
How my brother and sister laughed
When they heard the lawyer declare
Granny's only left you her old armchair

Well I thought it wasn't fair, but still I didn't care
And that night I went and took the chair away.
The neighbours they laughed and my brother only chaffed
And said it will be useful someday,
When you're settled down in life, found a girl to be your wife
And when your work is over I declare
You never abroad need roam but each night stay at home
And be seated in your old armchair.

CHORUS

What my brother said was true and in a year or two
I was settled down in married life
I first the girl did court, then the ring I bought
And took her to the church to be my wife.
Now the old girl and me were as happy as could be
And when my work was over I declare
On a cold and frosty night, when the fire burned bright
I'd be seated in my old armchair.

CHORUS

One night the chair fell down, when I picked it up I found
The seat had fallen out upon the floor
And there to my surprise, right before my eyes
Was a lot of notes, two thousand pounds or more.
When my brother heard of this, the fellow I confess
Went nearly wild with rage and tore his hair.
But I only laughed at him and said unto him "Jim
Don't you wish you'd had the old armchair?"

(Ed— Thanks Mr. Slaney)

Hidden in the following sentences are nine male names.

I must register my car tomorrow before I take it out on the road.

Come on, we made a deal and now you've broken it.

I started to read this book yesterday but it's not very good.

The wood cutter shouted timber just before the tree fell.

How about lending me five pounds until pay day, I'm flat broke.

The annual fair starts at the end of May.

There's talk about a royal wedding, is it true?

It was just a remark, no need to take it personally.

I told her my secret in confidence and she betrayed me.

Do take care. More next month. Joyce.

Hello Amy...you look after yourself.

(for answers please turn to page 3)

Helen and Olive would like to thank everyone for the cards and gifts received on their retirement.

Thank you all very much
