Half Term Kids Events—It's half-term already! If you are looking at things to do to keep the kids occupied and yourself sane, here are a couple of ideas:

Butterley Station Ripley will be hosting a Brick Week combining Lego Brick Models with a trip on a heritage train (26th May-3rd June).

Crich Tramway Museum's popular Seaside event returns from 26th May-9th June, as the village is transformed into a family-themed seaside resort with a 'beach area' with deck chairs and buckets and spades for kids to build their own sandcastles. There is also A Fun Fair.

Welcome to the May Edition of the Winster Village Magazine

Some magazines last month looked a bit wishy washy unfortunately, but I've been informed that our village printer is in full working order again. Hopefully this edition is reaching all of you in a clear and colourful condition. In case you received a magazine with particularly faint parts, please take a look at the online version on the Winster website in the News section. The Winster website - www.winster.org - is also back to its full functionality. As you can see on the title page, Carnival Day falls on Saturday, 30 June 2018, which will come around sooner than you think. In this issue, you can find lots of requests for cakes, raffle prizes and general helpers, so everything goes smoothly during Wakes Week. If you haven't done so before, why not contribute in one way or another this year? Just have a look through your magazine to find out where, when and how.

WPCOG—Litter Picks

18 of the now 35 strong litter picking volunteers turned out for our first pick on Saturday 28th April. Armed with all new equipment, courtesy of a grant from the Peak Park and a contribution from the WPCOG, we set out in various directions around the village. Everybody worked hard for the morning and the outcome was an amazing total of 17 bags of litter collected, several items of scrap and a shopping basket! Some of the volunteers took the initiative to go back and complete picks of areas they didn't manage to finish on the day and we are happy to facilitate this by lending the equipment. Another large scale pick is planned for late Autumn and there are likely to be picks at other times throughout the year. Thank you to all those who have volunteered and if anyone else would like to be involved at any time, feel free to contact me (daveandhes@btinternet.com) and I will add you to the mailing list.

WINSTER NIGHT

this year is introduced once more by Andy Clapham and Geoff Lester. The date is Friday 29 June. We are beginning to assemble the acts and are hoping to count on you (YES, YOU!) Please get in touch with one of us, or phone 650090. Remember, without your help - no show. We also need a volunteer stage manager and a pianist who could do some simple accompaniments. Could it be you?

CHRIS'S CAFE

On Carnival day I have agreed to open Chris's Cafe outside Virginia House.

I would be very grateful for any donations of cakes to help with this. Please let me know if you are prepared to do this. At the same time I am looking for volunteers to help with the serving and washing up for short periods.

Many thanks, Chris tel 650412

A Night at the Oscars - Scarecrow Competition - CASH PRIZES!!!

The Scarecrow Competition will be rolled out to the whole village during this year's Secret Gardens - the theme this year is "A night at the Oscars" with suitably decorated film star scarecrows. There are 2 categories - Village Group competition with a £25 first prize where funds will go to your village organisation and individuals competition with £15 first prize, £10 second prize, £5 third prize

Having piloted the event at the school over the last 2 years, we have found that "half sized" scarecrows are easier to make, transport and erect so this is what we will be going with this year. Tips from previous years are to make your scarecrow waterproof, have a snappy title for it and make sure any accessories are securely fastened.

If you would like a scarecrow stand in order to enter the competition please email sharonetalbot@yahoo.co.uk and we will get a stand to you mid-June. The scarecrows need to be completed by Monday 9th July (the Monday before Secret Gardens weekend) and delivered to my house (Redthorne at the top of Painters Way). The scarecrows will be judged and distributed to Secret Gardens over the week and then yours to collect and display after Secret Gardens weekend.

Please email or phone 650718 if any questions. Sharon Talbot

Family fun at our termly breakfast!

Our most recent family event at Winster School was another one of our fabulous family breakfasts! We all enjoyed a traditional English spread this time with cereals, scrambled eggs and even marmite (love it or hate it!). The event proved popular as always and we raised £90 for ICT resources to benefit the children. Our next breakfast will be in June and on an Italian theme to link with the much awaited visit but our Italian friends.

School council hard at work!

Our school council works hard to make our school a better place and their most recent contributions to school life have included making posters for the playground to encourage each other to play games with our friends, organising a forthcoming PJs and games day and taking pupil responses on how they would like the playground to be improved. This has included using a wider range of equipment (such as the chinks to encourage the artists amongst us) and buying new goal nets (to encourage those of us who are more sporty!). We are always trying to work together to make our school an even better place!

Sandra Purslow receiving the Derbyshire community award.

Sandra, Darby & Joan leader, was presented the Derbyshire Dales chairman's community, in recognition of her contribution to the life of her community, awarded by councillor Stephen Flitter, and nominated by councillor Colin Swindell.

Sandra was presented with the award at the Darby & Joan meeting. The members, Fred and family are all very proud, and a big thank you to Sandra for all that she does.

SENIOR CLUB

Notice is hereby given that the SENIOR CLUB will have a summer break from the end of April 2018 until September 2018 when notice will be given of the start date.

Thanks to everyone for their support and I look forward to more laughter when we reconvene later in the year.

Gerry Harpham

Interested in volunteering for Winster and Elton Luncheon Club? We meet every Monday in the Burton Institute for lunch and a wide range of outings, talks and activities. The club is open to older residents of Winster and Elton. The team of volunteers help with serving lunch, and organising and running the activities with club members. You can get involved in planning the programme, helping with practical arrangements, and washing up if the fancy takes you. Volunteers arrive at 11am to set up, and leave just after 2pm, depending on the week's programme. Don't worry if you can only make the occasional week. All help is appreciated. Its fun, and a great way to hear stories of life in Winster and Elton, and to get involved, hands on in village life.

Tales of old Winster-with Eric Shimwell

This tale was told by Eric Shimwell, who lived for most of his 78 years in Winster. He is fondly remembered by all who knew him and these tales were told to former village postmaster and resident, Paul Downing, and are republished here with his kind permission.

Changes in the Pub

Pubs today are nothing like they used to be, says Eric. As recently as the end of World War II they all offered some form of entertainment, and as Eric says, "There was always something going on."

The Bowling Green in Winster had bowls, as the pub's name might suggest, but of the skittles variety with 5 balls. Typical bets of 6d were placed on whether all the skittles would be knocked down. Another contest involved lifting a 17 gallon churn containing water. Fred Bonsall, a local who was "as thin as a rake" was the expert in this event and could lift a surprisingly large amount of water for his physique.

Eric also remembers how men would sit in the pub for long hours drinking, especially during Wakes Week and at 6d to 8d a pint they could afford it. One chap used to have his wife bring his dinner into the pub every day, and he would carry the plates back home at night - if he could walk, that is!

One unanswered question for Eric is whether the ale was stronger in those days, because men would always come out of the pub singing, especially on Friday and Saturday nights. Even the non-singers would sing. "There's not one chap as didn't fall through my garden fence on the way home" says Eric, and he still keeps a hole there in memory of those times.

A particular memory is of a local man, Harry Lowndes who went to the Miner's Standard for a "session", and when he became paralytic and fell over they carried him to one of the outbuildings to sleep it off. When he woke in the morning he discovered that, in order to get to the food scraps in his pockets the rats had eaten through his clothes and they were hanging in tatters.

"Characters" were thick on the ground in those days. One Christmas Eve Eric went to see his parents in Youlgreave taking his mate, Alf with him in the car. Someone had promised Alf a cockerel for Christmas and so Eric dropped him off at The George in Youlgreave. Sometime during the evening he was given his cockerel - still alive - in a bag, but what happened next is all a little vague.

All that Eric found out later is that Alf, rather the worse for drink and hardly able to stand, was put on a bus home, still carrying his live cockerel in the bag. Eric found him a while later on at Horley Bridge, lying at the bus stop fast asleep. Rousing Alf from his slumber Eric discovered that he had fallen on the bag containing his cockerel, and his Christmas dinner was as flat as a pancake.

Other local characters were two retired miners, Bob and Sam. Bob was a giant of a man, Sam quite small and they could always be seen together drinking. If you bought Bob a pint of ale his party trick was to bite a chunk out of the pot (ale was served in pot jars in those days). One day our two lads had gone to the Red Lion at Wensley, which in those days was kept by a Mrs Cordwell. Upon entering the pub they were told sternly that they were not welcome there "because they could not control themselves", so they made their way back to Winster.

Telling their tale the following week, Sam said, "I tell you this, we did na go there once before after that!" This was an example of "upside down speak" for which some folks were famous. Such as the time when a car ran over a hen and someone announced, "Ee, there's been an accident up at 't Miners Standard. Bandicoot's run right over a car."

St. John The Baptist Church Winster

"Our Scriptures have much to say about patience. Yet we assume all too often that it is a passive kind of waiting; a form of restraint in which we simply bide our time before we get the result we either wanted or didn't want. But patience is no such thing. It is being still before God, and realizing that in the waiting, all desires are known, transformed and reshaped." (Martyn Percy) We move from the death and coldness of snow, from the bleak landscape and plants that look dead to the sun, and the beautiful plants and the amazing colours of the countryside and the beauty of peoples gardens. We have to have patient, to trust that a Julian of Norwich said "All shall be well." The most wonderful sermons I've experienced are normally at the burial of someone and suddenly the sun shines through the clouds, and the countryside seems to take on a real brightness and rich life. We need to have trust in the Lord. We must trust even when the clouds were low and dark there is sunshine behind it. A life of faith is about movement, its about trust and patience. Its a movement from fear to joy and hope. During the summer we need to allow ourselves to rest, to trust in God's love, and in our restfulness we need to be open to the movement of the Spirit. We live in a manic world, but within that world to grow, to flourish, to serve others, we also need rest and peace and love. The God of all surprises leads us to be the people we are called to be. Let us wait and be still before God. Use the tools of Mindfulness, Contemplation and Meditation to be still before God. As people we need to spend time in stillness and in times of activity to listen to the Lord.

Have a great Summer.

God Bless.

Stephen

Reminder: Winster Walking Group

We meet twice a month, usually on the first and third Mondays, for a 5 - 6 mile walk, generally finishing with a pub lunch. The walks are mostly within a 30 minute drive from Winster and we assemble first outside the Bowling Green so we can arrange car sharing. Everyone in the group is invited to take a turn planning and leading a walk once or twice a year. Because we are blessed with such wonderful walking in the Peak District, we have had a great variety of walks during the eight years we have been running and we have rarely done the same route twice.

Everyone who joins us walks entirely at their own risk and dogs are welcome (provided they are accompanied by well-behaved owners). We are a very sociable group and would welcome any newcomers.

Contact Judy Hinsliff – 01629 650119 or judy.hinsliff@gmail.com for any further information.

We do also have a longer walk on the second Tuesday of the month – see Marg Lester for more about this – 01629 650090 or marg@orchardmine.co.uk
